

Market commentary

Equity market returns in November were relatively muted. In the UK, the budget was well received by markets, CPI inflation slowed to 3.6% year-over-year, and investors increased expectations of a Bank of England rate cut in December. In the US the Fed was the biggest driver, with markets initially reducing the expectation of a December rate cut before various Fed speakers changed the outlook which in turn gave a boost to risk assets.

The Trust provided a positive return for the month. ITV, Macy's and UK banks were the largest contributors to returns, while Marks & Spencer and Smith & Nephew were the principle detractors from performance.

ITV's share price jumped as the company confirmed preliminary discussions with Comcast's Sky regarding a potential £1.6 billion sale of its Media & Entertainment division. The deal would include ITV's commercial free-to-air TV channels, streaming service ITVX, and regional news operations.

UK banks performed well as it emerged there would not be an increase on taxes on the banks at the budget. US retailer Macy's was also a positive contributor to performance; the company has performed well in the second half of this year with positive results suggesting that the new management's efforts to reinvigorate the group's fortunes are bearing fruit.

Marks & Spencer was the largest detractor from performance during the month. The company announced its half-year results at the beginning of the month which showed adjusted pretax profit fell 55% from a year earlier, a big factor being the one-off hit from the cyber-attack earlier in the year.

Smith & Nephew was also a detractor from performance as the company reported Q3 underlying revenue growth of 5%, missing analyst estimates.

UK equities continue to be valued at a significant discount to global equities generally. Accordingly, we believe that, notwithstanding the shorter-term uncertainties, UK equities are priced to offer relatively attractive returns into the future.

Trust objective

To provide growth in income and capital to achieve a long-term total return greater than the benchmark FTSE All-Share Index, through investment primarily in UK securities. The Company's policy is to invest in a broad spread of securities with typically the majority of the portfolio selected from the constituents of the FTSE 350 Index.

Performance (total return)

Past performance is not a guide to future performance. The value of investments and the income from them may fall as well as rise and is not guaranteed; an investor may receive back less than the original amount invested. This Company may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within the short to medium term.

Risk warnings

This document is for information purposes only and does not constitute an offer or invitation to purchase shares in the Company and has not been prepared in connection with any such offer or invitation. Before investing in the Company, or any other investment product, you should satisfy yourself as to its suitability and the risks involved, and you may wish to consult a financial adviser.

Any return you receive depends on future market performance and is uncertain. The Company does not seek any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment. For information on the principal risks the Company is exposed to please refer to the Company's Annual Report or Investor Disclosure Document, available at <https://www.templebarinvestments.co.uk/documents/>.

Company share price risk

Shares in the Company are bought and sold on the London Stock Exchange. The price you pay or receive, like other listed shares, is determined by supply and demand and may be at a discount or premium to the underlying net asset value of the Company. Usually, at any given time, the price you pay for a share will be higher than the price you could sell it.

Borrowing/leverage risk

The Company has increased its exposure to investments via borrowings and this could potentially magnify any losses or gains made by the Company.

The Company's gearing and discount management policies can be found at <https://www.templebarinvestments.co.uk/investment-approach/investment-policies/>

Interest rate

The value of fixed income assets & liabilities (e.g. bonds) tends to decrease when interest rates and/or inflation rises and increase when interest rates and/or inflation falls.

Concentration risk

The Company's portfolio may be concentrated in a limited number of geographical regions, industry sectors, markets and/or individual positions. This may result in large changes in the value of the portfolio, both up or down, which may adversely impact the Company's performance.

Target market

The Company is suitable for investors seeking an investment that aims to deliver total returns over the longer term (at least five years), is compatible with the needs for retail clients, professional clients and eligible counterparties and is eligible for all distribution channels.

The Company may not be suitable for investors who are concerned about short-term volatility and performance, have low or no risk tolerance or are looking for capital protection, who are seeking a guaranteed or regular income, or a predictable return profile. The Company does not offer capital protection.

Value assessment

Frostrow Capital LLP has conducted an annual value assessment on the Company in line with Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA") rules set out in the Consumer Duty regulation. The assessment focuses on the nature of the product, including benefits received and its quality, limitations that are part of the product, expected total costs to clients and target market considerations.

Within this, the assessment considers quality of services, performance of the Company (against both benchmark and peers), total fees (including management fees and entry and exit fees as applicable to the Company) and considers whether vulnerable consumers are able to receive fair value from the product.

Frostrow Capital LLP concluded that the Company is providing value based on the above assessment.
